Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weakness and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not result fatally.

No medicine extant has such a long and unimpaired record of cures in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a strong professional endorsement of each of its ingredients, and a guarantee of its purity and safety. The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No other medicine, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath.

In any condition of the female system, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure cancer, no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covers or 51 stamps for cloth-bound one. Address as above.

CHOKED HIS WIFE TO DEATH.

Ernest Terwiler, of Newark, Ohio, on Saturday night slew his eighteen-year-old wife and their unborn child by choking the mother to death during a quarrel. Last night he confessed the homicide, and is under special guard in the city prison because many infuriated citizens set up a cry for summary vengeance about the prison when the crime became known.

The Terwilers were married about a year ago, the bride being popular in her set of society on account of her beauty and social qualities. Terwiler was jealous of his wife and domestic discord caused a separation.

Recently the pair became reconciled and went to live at the home of Charles Nutter. Yesterday morning one of the Nutters went to call the Terwilers for breakfast. Getting no response, the door was forced. Mrs. Terwiler was found dead on the bed. Her tongue protruded from her blackened face and there were finger marks on her throat.

As Terwiler was gone, a search was begun for him. No sooner had he been arrested than he admitted the double crime. He said he had been out of work for some time and that he had taken several drinks with some friends Saturday afternoon.

Returning home in the evening, he said his wife asked him for money to buy baby clothes. He told her he had no money for her, and the quarrel waxed warm. Old troubles were revived, and recriminations aroused the husband's anger to such an uncontrollable stage that he seized his wife by the throat, threw her over the edge of the bed, and choked her till she ceased to struggle.

With his brain still muddled with liquor, Terwiler, thinking he had only choked the woman into submission, so he says, left the house, in order not to renew the quarrel. He was heard to leave the house shortly before midnight, but nothing was thought of this action at the time, as the quarrel had been more wordy than vociferous.

As soon as the details of the crime became known to the many friends of Mrs. Terwiler, a great crowd gathered round the jail and demanded the prisoner. When special guards were placed on duty the crowd finally melted away, and it is thought no attempt to storm the prison will be made.

THREW WOMAN OUT.

Shortly after Saturday midnight, piercing shrieks from a woman drew to the windows many nightgowned residents on fashionable Mount Royal avenue, Baltimore. Their attention was attracted to No. 1510, when those who reached the windows in time saw a feeble woman and finally saw one woman throw another out.

The ejected one was Mrs. Wilson L. Camden, wife of a well-known lawyer of Baltimore, who is a nephew of the late Senator Camden, of West Virginia. The Camdens live at 1610 Mount Royal avenue, just a block above.

The other woman in the case was Dr. Ollie J. Prescott, a woman physician of Baltimore.

While the fight was going on, Mr. Camden was walking up and down in front of the house. A patrolman, hearing the scream, hurried up and arrested Mr. and Mrs. Camden, the former on the charge of disturbing the peace and the latter on the charge of assaulting Dr. Prescott.

Both spent the night in the station-house. At the hearing Saturday morning, Justice Tyson dismissed the charge against Mrs. Camden, because of extenuating circumstances, and fined Mr. Camden $25 and costs.

Mr. John Riba of Vinny, Ia., says, "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

HEN HATCHES SNAKE.

Peter Wise, living near Omega Ind., had the surprise of his life when he pulled a string hen out of the nest that she had made in the edge of a straw stack. He had noticed her sitting there for some time and began to suspect that she was sitting on a clow knob or a nest of spoiled eggs. When he lifted her up, instead of a brood of chickens or a batch of spoiled eggs, there was a bunch of snakes, little black black fellows, each about seven inches long and wriggling furiously. Mr. Wise promptly dispatched the snakes, 11 in number, and the hen was disposed of by having her neck wrung. Mr. Wise said that he had no use for a hen that could not tell the difference between a snake's egg and her own product.

DeWitt's Little Early Bitters are small, safe and gentle little pills. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOUND FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

James Graham, a contractor of Glenfield, a suburb of Pittsburg, Pa., on Saturday while moving a house, dug up an old lard can which contained English gold coin of the value of $5,000. The house had belonged to Mary Ann Kileb, an English woman, who came to this country before the civil war and brought the gold with her. She was suspicious of banks, and buried it. Two months ago Miss Kileb, who lived with her younger sister, Libby Kileb, was stricken with paralysis. She was unable to speak or write, and continued in that condition until she died. Many times the ricken woman tried to tell her secret, but could not. The entire amount was turned over to the sister, Libby Kileb.

Any Man or Woman can transform a soft wood floor into a perfect imitation of a beautifully grained hard wood floor in a few minutes with

and the Chi-Namel Self-Grainer

Or an old hard wood floor, furniture, etc., may be made to look like new with a harder, more durable finish than it had originally.

Chi-Namel colors the wood, and varies it at the same time, and the surface is so hard that walking or washing will not remove the gloss.

This new self-grainer makes it easy for anyone to produce a beautiful grained effect, exactly like the most expensive hand wood floors.

Call at our store and allow us to demonstrate how easy it is to grain and varnish by this improved system. Free samples while they last.

Miss Evens, the demonstrator, will teach you the merits of

CHI-NAMEL

In less than five minutes. Come and try it. You can grain as good as anyone with this new process.
